Southaven Bank Robbers Aug.
16, 2016

DESCRIPTION

Sex: Male

Build: Small

Race: Black

Age: 20s

Remarks: The robbers wore hooded sweatshirts and ski masks.

Vehicle Information: The subjects departed from the bank in a powder blue, older model Nissan (possibly an Altima) with the license plate removed.

Weapon Used: Handgun. Unknown caliber.

CAUTION

Two unknown Black males wearing hooded sweatshirts robbed the Renasant Bank at approximately 1:50 p.m. on August 16, 2016, in Southaven, Mississippi. At least one of the robbers displayed a handgun and racked the slide after entering the bank. Both subjects ordered the bank employees to the ground and threatened to shoot the teller if she did not give them money. One of the subjects jumped up on the counter and, after getting money from the teller, reached into the teller drawer and took the remainder of the money out of the teller drawer himself.

The robbers were estimated to be in their twenties. One was estimated to be approximately 5'6" to 5'7" tall with a slender build. The other was a bit taller, possibly 5'9" to 5'11", with a slender but muscular build.
